

Training

On-site Training

As part of our support package we can provide hands-on training for a small group or even 'one-to-one' basis on your own site. It is like having your own personal tutor.

Unlike purchasing an expensive one or two day course, these short sessions will be tailored to the system you have and your own specific needs or those of your staff.